Like the sun shining through the clouds around Mount Olympus, the Trend Lighting Selene Drum Pendant sheds its warm, ethereal light. Its singular shade is composed of numerous curved rounds of Sateen White glass, the light they diffuse enhanced by the cool gleam of the Polished Chrome finish on the metal frame.

Planted and nurtured in a California basement more than 20 years ago, and founded on the principles of quality and innovation, Trend Lighting has grown to create products to complement a variety of styles, from contemporary to classic traditional.
